

Helen wins place at Cambridge

A TEESSIDE High School student is celebrating after being offered a place to study at Cambridge University.

Helen Maxwell, 18, from Eaglescliffe, has won a place at Christ's College to study natural sciences. Helen has been a pupil at Teesside High School since she was three years old, and is this year's Head Girl.